Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. No. 124, dated the 27th July 1920, I am desired to state that neither the Hon'ble the Resident nor Genl. Worgan has asked for the presence of the Inspector General of Police at Mysore at the time of Genl. Worgan's visit to that place. The Inspector General of Police has been asked to be present at Mysore on the 3rd August next on the surmise that he may be required in connection with the precautionary police measures to be adopted for the safety of the person of H.R.H. as the main object of Genl. Worgan s visit as intimated by the Residency will be to discuss general arrangements on the spot." In this connection I am to add that at the meeting held at the Residency to discuss similar arrangements connected with the last Viceregal Visit the Inspector General of Police was also present and in fact he followed the Special officer even to Mysore and Kolar when he inspected the sites of the various functions.

In case his presence is not required at Mysore I shall inform the 29th

Dear Mr. Balasundaram Iyer,

Your letter dated 28th Instant, with reference to the presence of the Inspector-General of Police at Mysore, when General Worgan comes here on the 3rd of August. I may inform you that General Worgan, who (kindly note) is a Military Secretary, comes to discuss arrangements connected with the accommodation, reception and other ceremonials connected with the Royal Visit. It is hardly likely that he will want to discuss any Police arrangements with the Inspector-General of Police. As regards the last sentence of your letter, may I remind you that the special officer who came to Mysore in connection with the Viceregalvisit was a Police Officer of the Government of India Intelligence Department, and the sole object of his visit was to discuss Police arrangements with our Police Officers, and he had nothing to do with any thing else. It was therefore right and proper that the Inspector-General of Police should meet and take him round.

As however, the Inspector-General of Police has already been asked to be present in Mysore, on the 3rd, it is not worth while cancelling the order now, after all it matters little one way or the other, but I thought I might as well explain the position to you, especially in view of your letter under reply.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Mirza Ismail,

your D.O. 142 d. 29th July 1920

I have noted the contents of the letter and the aspect of the matter you have referred to also occurred to me but I thought as a matter of extra precaution there would be no harm in asking the Sg. P. also to be on the spot in case police arrangement came under discussion. As you think his presence unnecessary and it is not yet too late to countermand the instruction to him I am doing so and I trust it is all right.

yours sincerely,
